

Does my family have to be from Victoria in order to join?

Full membership is available to Indigenous people studying law at a Victorian University or practising law in Victoria. Our members come from all over Australia, and the current Tarwirri committee members come from Queensland, South Australia and Victoria respectively. We have members from as far away as Palm Island, Kalgoorlie and Broome!